

Life Sciences Career Seminar Your chance to speak with the experts

Careers for Life:
Expert Perspectives in Life Sciences

Regionally, and especially in Singapore, the pharmaceutical and biological industry represents one of the fastest growing sectors - a true "Fourth Pillar" providing sustainable economic development and significant career opportunities. If you are considering a new career in the Life Sciences, or are a professional, manager, executive or technician (PMET) looking to re-train or switch careers, or even if you already work in the industry but are looking for career advancement, come meet our panel of experts and recruiters. Stand out from the crowd and set your feet on the path to success.
